Police Detailed to Protect Tony Geronia's Barber Shop.

Little Frank Dohlco's Death to Be Investigated.

Coroner Lindsay, of Brooklyn, this morning took charge of the body of Frank Dohico, an Italian boy, twelve years old, who died under suspicious circumstances at the home of Tony Geronia, an Italian barber, at 591 Driggs street, Williamsburg.

Last week the customers missed the boy from his place in the barber shop, and the early morning visitors on Sunday were told that Frank was dead. Anton Guellino insisted on looking at the body. Upstairs in the corner of a dingy old room the body lay on a bed of rags. A pair of scapulars and an Agnus Dei hung loosely round his thin neck and his bony hands were buried in a piece of

There were many who declared that the poy's parents were in Italy, and that he had been a victim of the padrone system. James Foran, the County Undertaker, took charge of the Diet Dispensary. The spacious grounds of Mr. William Moses at the corner of Washington and Atlantic avenues, Brooklyn, were beautifully decorated this morning with Stars and Stripes and banners and bunting, in preparation for the garden party to be held this afternoon and evening and to-morrow atternoon and evening for the benefit of the Brooklyn Diet

The various booths, which will be presided over by some of the most beautiful women and girls in Brooklyn, were put in readiness for the afternoon's throng, and the pretty lawn took on the semblance of rairyland. This effect will be greatly heightened in the even-ing, when the grounds are illuminated by electric and calcium lights and Japanese lan-

The Committee of Arrangements, consist-ing of Mrs. Peter Bogert, Mrs. R. B. Fithian, Mrs. George A. Allin, Mrs. John Condon. Mrs. Benry T. Finch and Mrs. C. H. Terry, have planned to make this garden party one of the society events of this season, and with favorable weather their hopes will doubtless be realized.

The Twenty-third Regiment band will give afternoon concerts from 3 to 6 o'clock and promenade concerts in the evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. There will be a Punch and Judy entertainment for the amusement of the children from 3.30 to 6 o'clock.

$1,000 REWARD FOR A FIREBUG.

The Underwriters' Association Will Pay for His Arrest and Conviction. MRS. HOERWAN ASKS A DIVORCE. A reward of $1,000 has been offered by the National Association of Fire Underwriters for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to the clothing store of Samuel Levin, 724 Third avenue, Brooklyn on Jan. 17 last.

The insurance companies have refused to pay Levin the amount of his alleged a sees and he has begun suit against them.

The underwriters say that they will resort to energetic measures hereafter to bring incendiaries to justice. They will offer large rewards to make it an object for detectives and others to hunt down the criminals.
